UNIVERSITY SUMMER SCHOOL.

A new department at the University Summer School at Charlottesville this season will be the course in household economics under the direction of Miss Edith G. Charlton, of the Extension Department of Iowa State College. The course, as outlined, contains a variety of subjects of vital interest to every woman in Virginia, and it has been designed to meet the needs of teachers, home makers and young girls. The work will be thoroughly practical and as far as possible individual instruction will be given in cooking and sewing.

Every morning, except Saturday, there will be lectures and discussions of food materials, comparing them as to digestibility, nutrition and cost. This is a subject in which every person, young or old, should have a keen interest because it is one which has to do with every phase of life. The diet of the young is one of the most important factors in the physical and mental development of the individual. The health of the individual means the general well-being of the community, the State, and finally the nation.

What we should eat, how our diet should be arranged and varied according to age, occupation, climate and individual requirements, and how it should be prepared and served will furnish subject matter for two profitable weeks of study at the summer school.

Home management will form the topic of the morning study for the second two weeks of the session. This topic includes such practical subjects as the division of the family income, allowing a reasonable percentage for food, clothing, shelter, etc. The time is past when good housekeepers are content to keep house from hand to mouth, as it were, thinking only of the wants of the moment without thought for the needs for tomorrow. Marketing, sanitation, house furnishing and general housework will be discussed scientifically and practically every morning except Saturday for two weeks.

RESCUED BY AN ENGINEER.

A dispatch from Fon du Lac, Wis., says: Bringing his fast express train to a sudden stop to leap from his cab into the waters of Mud Creek, Engineer J. A. Tyman, by a thrilling quick swim and dive, achieved a thrilling rescue a of drowning boy.

Tyman is a passenger engineer on the Wisconsin Central, and when approaching Mud Creek, near Hilbert Junction, on his run from Manitowoc to Neenah, he caught sight of the lad seated midway on the bridge fishing, wholly oblivious to the approaching danger. There was an instant closing of the throttle and an application of the air, but before the train could be stopped the bridge had been passed.

The boy in his fright either jumped into the water or was swept off by the train. When Tyman leaped from his engine the little fellow was struggling in the stream below, absolutely helpless. The engine driver plunged down the bank into the water, wading, swimming and finally diving to reach the boy, and emerging a few moments later with the victim almost exhausted.

The boy was taken to Collins and turned over to the care of a physician, while Tyman, after finishing his run at Fon du Lac, reported the affair in a perfunctory way to his superintendent.

THE GOULD DIVORCE CASE.

That Frank J. Gould, half crazed by jealousy of his beautiful young wife, had for years kept her surrounded by private detectives, in the guise of servants, while Mrs. Gould in her turn had filled his yacht with a crew of gumshoe men in her employ, where some of the revelations made yesterday in connection with New York's latest millionaire divorce scandal.

Following the serving of a summons yesterday on Mr. Gould in a suit for absolute divorce, there came the announcement yesterday that Mrs. Gould will seek her freedom on statutary grounds. The most sensational feature in the action has to do with an episode on Mr. Gould's yacht, the Helenita, in which a beautiful young singer, whose name has not been divulged, played the leading part.

It will be alleged, according to report, that Mr. Gould has for several years been having this woman's voice trained for the grand opera stage under the best masters in Europe, and that she accompanied him on long cruises in his yacht. The specific act of misconduct with the young woman will be alleged, is said, to have taken place some three or four years ago off Sidney, Nova Scotia. This, it is said, is only one of a number of acts of misconduct to be urged by his wife against the multi-millionaire son of the late Jay Gould.

When you need to take anmething take it promptly for the stomach, but take something you know is reliable—something like Kodol For Dyspepsia and Indigestion. Kodol is pleasant to take, it is reliable and is guaranteed to give relief. It is sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

A NEW DRUG LAW.

The legislature made radical changes in regard to the sales of medicines in the State of Virginia. In the first place they advanced the state board of pharmacy to a position almost if not quite equal to that of the board of agriculture. They provided a room for them at the Capitol and made an appropriation of $6,000 for their support. They left the making of many regulations, which have the force of law, with the state board of pharmacy and at its recent session that board made some changes which it will be well for merchants and even physicians to know.

Under the law as it will stand after the 26 h of this month, when all its provisions go into effect, no physician will be allowed to make any charge for any medicine supplied any of his patients. In prescribing narcotics, opium, morphia, or similar articles, the physician must put on the prescription the full name and address of the patient and sign it with his full name.

To sell cocaine is now a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary. The possession of cocaine is regarded as prima facie evidence of selling except that it may be handled by druggists, physicians, dentists and veterinary surgeons.

Merchants are allowed to sell certain drugs, but under various regulations.

In original packages only can be sold tincture of iron, quinine, calomel, sweet spirits of nitre, cream of tartar, essence of Jamaica ginger, paragoric, laudanum in packages not over two ounces, and proprietary medicines, but the labels on the latter must contain distinct statement of the disease or diseases for which it is intended and the directions for its use. If it contains any poisons the label must show the quantity. This applies to druggists as well.

In broken packages they may sell the following, but each package put out by the merchant must bear a label showing its contents and must have the name and address of the merchant selling.

The articles included in this list are alum, sulphur, borax, copperas, saltpeter and Epsom salts.

The board will grant permits to merchants to sell for one year the following, which cannot be sold without permits and which can even then be sold only in original packages; Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, Dewee's Carminative, Opsdel Dock, Number Six, Blue Stone, Paris Green, London Purple, carbolic acid and insecticides or poisons used for destruction of pests or diseases of trees and plants.

The above information is of much value to merchants.

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 26, 1908.

THERE will be laid to rest this evening in the shades of classic Princeton the remains of the most distinguished private citizen of the United States—Grover Cleveland—who twice faithfully and well served his country as its chief magistrate. He was a big and brainy patriot, but by no means a party man, and while many differed with him on political issues, yet all who knew his sterling worth honored and respected him. With his friends his faults are written upon the sand; his virtues upon tablets of love and memory.

IT WILL prove interesting to dog fanciers at a time when crusades are being made against the canine creation in different cities to know that these animals are believed to be a panacea for that painful malady rheumatism. Should this be established, dogs will be held in higher repute than ever. Mrs. O. S. Nelson, of Central City, Neb., was, according to her statement, cured of a very severe case of rheumatism recently. She had been so badly affected with this ailment in one of her arms that she could not sleep nights, and was greatly distressed. After trying various remedies and applying various liniments she had about given up hope of being cured. She had a little dog which sometimes slept by her side on the bed, and she found that the pain was greatly lessened by resting her arm against the dog's body. She persisted in this, and noticed that the pain grew constantly less. Eventually the rheumatism left her arm completely and appeared to go into the body of the dog, as it became ill and seemed to suffer great pain, and was finally killed to relieve it of its misery. According to the above, instead of using chloroform or baseball bats on useless canines, in future they can be utilized to carry off one of the most painful and uniniversal diseases known.

REV. DR. CHARLES F. AKED, pastor of the Fifth Avenue, New York, Baptist Church, imagines the church can purify ward politics. In his sermon last Sunday, previous to announcing that the church would be closed until September, Dr. Aked said:

The flag is dishonored more by the corrupt politician of the city or nation who debauches our constitution for graft and plunder than it would be if a foreign foe trampled it beneath his feet. The church must see to it that ward politics are rescued from the degradation into which they have fallen and must lift political ambitions out of the ooze and slum and petty chicanery and make of political effort something more than wirepulling, logrolling and graft.

The usefulness of the church is becoming more and more impaired by well-meaning people who endeavor to amalgamate religion and politics. The things of Cæsar and the things of God are as separate and distinct now as in the days when that truth was first uttered and will remain so until the end of time.

THE American Economist, the official organ of the Protective Tariff League, says there is not one syllable in the republican platform which tends to furnish revisionists the slightest crumb of comfort. It is a "stand pat" platform. The paper thinks that the ticket insures no changes in the tariff, especially in a downward direction, and all the other protectionists think the same way. Few believe that the tariff will be revised until there is a democratic congress.

IN connection with the death of Grover Cleveland, it is interesting to note that only twice before in the history of the nation has the United States been without a living ex-President. George Washington died in 1799, when John Adams, the second president, was in office. Andrew Johnson, at the time the only surviving ex-chief executive, passed away in 1875, two years before General Grant retired to private life.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, June 26.

President Penna, of Brazil, who has become peculiarly interested in the United States since the visit of Secretary of State Root to that country, has paid a rare tribute to the American government and people and their former president, Grover Cleveland, by directing the national flag of Brazil displayed at half mast throughout the republic until after Mr. Cleveland's funeral. This information was cabled by Mr. Dudley, the American ambassador. Mr. Dudley announced that the minister of foreign affairs had conveyed to him profound condolences upon Mr. Cleveland's death. Several foreign governments have conveyed condolences to the State Department upon the death of the former president. Among them are Austria, Hungary, Costa Rica and Cuba. The expression from the Austrian Hungarian government is given in the following note to the Secretary of State from Baron Hengelmuller, ambassador of that government, now at Bar Harbor, Maine. "The imperial and royal government have directed me to transmit to the federal government the expression of a deep and sincere regret at the death of former President Cleveland. Permit me to add to this message the expression of my own emotion and sympathy in the loss of the illustrious statesman whom I had the honor to know personally."

Jacob Sleeper, the American charge d'affaires to Venezuela, who withdrew from the Legation at Caracas with his family, reported to the State Department today his arrival on the gunboat Marietta at Curacao yesterday. He announced his readiness to proceed on his way home, and, at the request of the State Department, orders were cabled to the commander of the Marietta by acting Secretary of the Navy Admiral Pillsbury for that ship to proceed at once to Guantanamo. Mr. Sleeper and Mrs. Sleeper will be put ashore there and they will make their way by boat to Havana and proceed to Washington by way of New York. Mr. Sleeper stated that Lieutenant Francis Ruggles, the military attache to Venezuela, who withdrew from Caracas with Mr. Sleeper also is at Curacao with his family. John Brewer, vice consul at Caracas, who is nephew of Minister Russell, will remain indefinitely, or until further developments, as custodian of the archives of the embassy and consulate, but without diplomatic authority. American diplomatic interests in Venezuela will be looked after in a way by the Brazilian minister there.

In order to meet the increasing pressure of business in the office of the comptroller of the currency, Congress, at its recent session, made an appropriation of $3,000 for the pay of a second deputy comptroller, the present deputy receiving $3,500. In so doing Congress furnished two questions for the legal experts of the government to decide. One of these arises from the fact that there is no law creating the office of second deputy comptroller, beyond the mere appropriation. It was also left uncertain whether the president or the secretary of the treasury should make the appointments to the new position. The solicitor of the treasury decided that the language of the appropriation bill was sufficient authority for the creation of the office and that the president should make the appointment. The matter was, however, considered of so great importance, in view of possible litigation in the future in case acts of the new deputy should be questioned, that it was referred to the attorney general for an opinion. That official today sustained the decision of the solicitor of the treasury. The curious situation results that, under the provisions of the original banking act, the secretary of the treasury appoints the first deputy, while the second, and less important deputy, would be commissioned by the president himself. Because technical knowledge is absolutely essential the new deputy will be chosen from among the men who have had years of training in the office. The choice is said to lie between W. J. Fowler, chief of organization division, and W. W. Eldridge, chief of the issue division, both of whom have seen twenty years' service under the various comptrollers.

The family of Minister Wu reached Washington last night from China.

It is said that the president in his message to Congress next winter will urge legislation substituting a governor for the three District of Columbia Commissioners. He has reached the conclusion that the present system is unsatisfactory and does not result in the greatest good for the people of Washington. He had better let well enough alone.

Twenty-eight public playgrounds will be opened to Washington children on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The play grounds are all in charge of regular teachers or physical directors.

With the arrival today of Secretary Elmer Dover, at the headquarters of the republican national committee the work of constructing the foundation for the presidential campaign was begun. For about three weeks, Dover will supervise this task, consisting principally of correspondence. Then headquarters will be closed here and offices opened in New York and Chicago. Frank B. Kellogg, the "trust buster" from Minneapolis, arrived with Dover. He is on his way to Oyster Bay to confer tomorrow with the President, Secretary Taft and other republican leaders.

STRUCK BY A TORNADO.

A tornado struck Shenandoah College, at Reliance, Warren county, Va., late Wednesday evening and caused hundreds of dollars damage. Several of the college buildings were smashed and unroofed by the storm and more than 100 big oaks skirting the college campus were uprooted and thrown to the ground by the wind. A large building used as an office by the Royal Printing Company was swept from its foundation and overturned, and nearly every tree on the college campus has been destroyed. Orchards in the vicinity were ruined, and telephone lines put out of business. Several buildings and trees were struck by lightning, and wheat and other crops were ruined.

A dispatch from Martinsburg, W. Va., says the worst storm that has visited that section in recent years swept over Berkeley county Wednesday evening, wrecking barns, killing livestock, destroying wheat and corn and putting telegraph and telephone service out of commission until yesterday. The storm assumed the proportions of a cloudburst in the vicinity of Bedington.

Uprising in Mexico.

Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, June 26.—As the result of an outbreak, the exact nature of which has not been learned, the town of Viesca, in Coahuila, Mexico, has been captured by an invading force of 200 armed and mounted men. A number of persons were killed and wounded in the engagement.

El Paso, Texas, June 26.—Evidence of an attempt to foment a political revolution in Mexico came to light here today when the building in which 11 Mexicans, arrested yesterday, was searched. Two cases of rifles and revolvers, one thousand rounds of ammunition and letters and documents of a most incriminating nature were found.

Story Disproved.

Pittsburg, June 26.—Investigation today of the story told by Frank McCabe, superintendent of the money order division of the Pittsburg postoffice, who was arrested Wednesday for the alleged embezzlement of $7,181, it is declared, has shown that no alarm of fire was turned in on Sunday in June, 1904. McCabe claimed that during that month he had gone to the postoffice and while watching fire engines pass, thieves had stolen more than $9,000 from his desk.

News of the Day.

Geo. Hackenschmidt, who, it was reported, had died at Aix-la-Chapelle, is said to be recovering from his recent indisposition.

The North Carolina democratic convention is deadlocked in the gubernatorial contest. The last ballot last night resulted as follows: Kitchin, 381.14; Craig, 335.28; Horne, 140.62.

Charles Rench, aged 48, for years a well known circus clown, committed suicide yesterday at Columbus, O., by burning. He had been in ill health. He piled papers on the floor of his room, applied a match and then lay on the flaming pyre.

In the Harvard-Yale four mile race at New London, Conn., yesterday Harvard's eight defeated Yale badly. This was Harvard's ninth victory in 30 years over Yale. In the same period Yale has been the victor 21 times. Yale's four defeated Harvard's four in the two mile race by 10 seconds.

The discovery of a new diamond field near Luderitz Bay, in German Southwest Africa, has occasioned great excitement at Capetown. The new field, nine square miles in extent, is unprecedentedly rich and is likely to take the lead from the Capetown region in the production of diamonds.

The sultan of Turkey, anxious to win the esteem of the American public, has conferred on Mrs. Roosevelt and her daughter, Ethel, the decoration of the Grand Cordon of Chefakat. This decoration is of the highest grade in Turkey, and is reserved for special favorites of the sultan. The order has been conferred on notables in every country.

All of the 1,945 ballot boxes, except 45, which are from Richmond county, New York, have been recounted in the Hearst-McClellan suit, the result being a net total gain for Hearst of 863 and a reduction of McClellan's election night plurality from 3,834 to 2,971. No possible change can upset the election of Mayor McClellan.

While temporarily insane, Mrs. August J. Johnson, wife of a prominent farmer living near Ida Grove, Iowa, drowned her four little children, two boys and two girls, in a cistern on the farm home. A neighboring woman who chanced to call found the woman trying to choke herself to death by cramming a bed quilt down her throat. One by one the distracted father helped pull his four children's bodies from the cistern. It is believed he will lose his mind.

A religious riot among several hundred negroes occurred at Rosenthal, 10 miles south of Waco, Texas, Wednesday night. Fully 100 shots were fired and several negroes were badly bruised by being knocked in the head. Rev. Fuqua, chief preacher of the "Living God," a new religious organization among the negroes, was speaking, and had been very severe on the other denominations, characterizing them as worthless and of little use. This aroused enmity among the negroes of the other denominations, which finally resulted in the rioting.

Gov. Hughes was none the worse yesterday from his experiences last night, when he narrowly escaped being struck by lightning while riding in an automobile in Albany. The bolt actually hit the auto, shivering the celluloid screen in front, and for a moment paralyzing the hand of Wilfrid Palin, jr., owner of the car, who was operating it. The governor was almost blinded by the flash. In the car with the governor were his private secretary and his military secretary. In the front seat beside Mr. Palin was the governor's messenger.

CARLIN WINS FIGHT.

On motion of Commissioner Macfarland, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia have decided to revoke their approval of the site for a substation at the north end of Long Bridge. This site was originally selected by the Pennsylvania Railroad. The company now will have to select another site on its own property between Four-and-a-half and Seventh street, southwest, Washington. This action is necessary as Congress did not act on the request of the railroad company for authorization to use 7,500 feet of public space adjoining its right of way at the point selected, the substation to be built partly on the right of way and partly on public space. The commissioners approved the site and recommended that Congress require the company to pay $7,500 for the land. It also was suggested that instead of paying for the land the company could pay an annual rental.

The fight against the bill to authorize the railroad company to use this government land as a site for a substation was led by Representative Charles C. Carlin. Mr. Carlin held there was no good reason why the road should receive permission to build a station on the government property when it owned land on which it could erect the building. He declared a substation on the property owned by the railroad between Four-and-a-half street and Seventh street southwest would be much more convenient for people who go to Washington from Virginia.

Mr. Carlin held the bill up in committee and it was never reported out. He also held up payment of $1,500,000 to the railroad company which was provided for in the union station act. In this act it was provided that the substation in question should be erected. It also provided that the money should not be paid until the union station and sub-station had been completed.

The commissioners cannot select a site, and having only the power to approve whatever selection may be made, they have asked the railroad officials to pick a site on land owned by the road and at a point regarded as convenient by those who will use the station. Until the substation is built, temporary platforms are to be used at Eighth street southwest. The railroad company has a tract reserved for freight yards east of Seventh street and the station will be in that vicinity.

Mr. Sherman Improving.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 26.—James S. Sherman, congressman and republican candidate for vice president, was so improved today his physicians thought he might be able to leave for his Utica, N. Y., home Monday. His condition is reported normal. It is probable that Mr. Sherman's physicians will insist on an operation before the presidential campaign opens believing that only in this way can a recurrence of the present attacked be avoided. He will be given a chance to regain his strength at Utica, however, prior to the operation, which will probably be performed in a Baltimore hospital.

MR. CLEVELAND'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Grover Cleveland at Princeton, N. J., this evening, will be marked by extreme simplicity. Although twice elected president of the United States, no pomp of spendor will have a place in the ceremonies.

The half mile of thoroughfare through which the cortege will pass from Westland, the Cleveland home, to the cemetery will be policed by mounted troops and blue-coated soldiers, but they will be there for police duty and as a measure of precaution in protecting the living president rather than as an element of display in paying tribute to a departed chief executive. It has been Mrs. Cleveland's wish to avoid anything of a military nature at the funeral, and it was only when the necessity of guarding President Roosevelt, who is to be in attendance, was borne upon her by those in charge of the funeral arrangements that she consented to the presence of troops in a police capacity.

Four clergymen will officiate at the house and at the grave. They will read the Presbyterian book of common worship, but will offer no eulogy. This simple service will be conducted by Dr. Henry Van Dyke, of Princeton; Rev. Dr. William R. Richards, pastor of the Brick Presbyterian Church, of New York; Rev. Sylvester W. Beach, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of Princeton, where the Cleveland family attended, and Rev. Maitland V. Bartlett, former pastor of the same church. There will be no honorary pallbearers.

Those who will bear Mr. Cleveland's body to its final resting place in the Cleveland plot will be Mayor George B. McClellan, Paul Morton, Commodore E. C. Benedict, Richard Watson Gilder, of New York; Prof. Paul Van Dyke, Dean Andrew F. West, Prof. John G. Hibben; Junius S. Morgan, a nephew of J. Pierpont Morgan; A. D. Russell, Prof. Howard McLenahan and Bayard Stockton, of Princeton.

The services at the house, which will begin at 5 o'clock, will be brief, after which the cortege will be formed and proceed to the cemetery.

Only those invited to the funeral and a few newspaper men will be permitted to enter the cemetery, which will be guarded by mounted troops and members of the National Guard of New Jersey. The simple Presbyterian service will be said at the grave, the casket lowered into the ground and the country's most distinguished citizen will have become but a memory.

President Roosevelt, Governor Fort, of New Jersey; Governor Hughes, of New York; Governor Hoke Smith, of Georgia, members of President Cleveland's cabinet and other notable citizens are expected to attend. President Roosevelt will arrive on a special train from Oyster Baythis evening at 4:40 o'clock. He will be met at the station by Governor Fort, and they will drive direct to the Cleveland home. After the ceremonies the president will leave Princeton at once in his private car Signet.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Preparations for the Funeral.

Princeton, N. J., June 26.—Preparations here today are rapidly making for the burial of former President Cleveland.

Mayor Robinson has issued a proclamation requesting a suspension of all business in the town between one and seven o'clock this afternoon and closing streets on the line of march from three o'clock until after the ceremony.

The present plan is to have the funeral services at about 5 o'clock. The Cleveland casket will be placed in the reception room on the east side of the house in front.

It is stated that only the close personal friends of Mrs. Cleveland would see the face of the dead. The casket will be opened in the room upstairs where Mr. Cleveland died, and will be closed before removed to the main reception room whence it will be borne to the hearse.

A message was received this morning which read: "My sympathy." It was signed Viscount Kaiko, Tokio, Japan.

In the broad central hall of the Cleveland home the clergymen who will officiate will read the Presbyterian burial service. The body followed by probably fifty carriages will then move through the center of the town to the grave.

There will be no firing, no singing and no eulogy at the grave. Simplicity as great as is possible will be observed.

"It was Mr. Cleveland's wish," says Mrs. Cleveland, "and that is sufficient reason."

Scores of beautiful floral offerings, telegrams and cables of sympathy are pouring into the stricken Cleveland home today.

Great wreaths from President and Mrs. Roosevelt, Baron Rio Branco, the Brazilian minister, and a huge floral trophy, the biggest yet received, from the New York Sons of St. Patrick arrived today.

New York, June 25.—With the exception of the New York Cotton Exchange which will be unable to close, as today is July notice day, all the exchanges in the country will cease to do business after one o'clock, out of respect to the memory of former President Grover Cleveland.

The stock exchanges at Philadelphia and Pittsburg will close at that hour, as will the New York Produce Exchange and the Chicago Board of Trade.

Will Adopt Anti-Injunction Plank.

[By John E. Nevins, staff correspondent of the United Press.]

Denver, Colo., June 26.—Democracy will grant most of labor's demands. Leaders already on the ground for the national convention admit today that Wm. J. Bryan is in absolute control of the party and his wishes will be paramount. The result of this will be an anti-injunction plank, framed along the lines of that of the Nebraska state platform, which was drafted by the Commoner, and is known to express his views. It is understood that the plank will provide as follows:

"We favor such a modification of the law relating to injunction as will, first, prevent the issuing of a writ in industrial disputes except at the notice to defendant and a full hearing; second, permit a trial before a judge other than the one who issued the writ; third, allow a jury to be summoned in all cases where alleged contempt is committed outside the presence of the court."

The report that an attempt will be made by easterners to tie up Bryan and his running mate with an ultra-conservative platform is indignantly denied by Norman E. Mack, national committeeman from New York, and Roger Sullivan, of Illinois. Both agree that the platform will follow closely Bryan's wishes in every particular.

Urey Woodson is to be re-elected secretary of the national committee, but Taggart will retire. It is said he would like to remain as chairman, but Bryan has decreed he must go.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 26.—An "inside tip" today is that Theodore A. Bell, of Napa, has been selected by Bryan to be temporary chairman and "keynoter" of the democratic national convention. Bell received a long letter from Bryan in which the Nebraskan is said to have outlined some of the issues he hopes to force upon the republicans.

Conditions in Persia.

St. Petersburg, June 26.—While the latest dispatches from Teheran indicated that the shah by the exercise of an iron-like will is suppressing the rebellion in the capital, reports from the provinces indicate a widespread revolution, with the reformers generally successful.

Scores of engagements have been fought in the last few days between the revolutionists and the shah's garrisons. The most severe of these was at Tabriz, where the revolutionists are reported to have been defeated. At most of the other places, however, the revolutionists hold the upper hand.

The army of loyalists that set out from Teheran to check the threatened invasion is burning and plundering indiscriminately.

The shah's worst fear now is of assassination, as the revolutionists have issued a decree that his life alone can atone for the outrages committed in the capital. The ruler is under a heavy personal guard and his every move is zealously watched.

Plotting Revolt.

Calcutta, June 26.—That the lives of Earl Minto, viceroy of India; Lord Kitchener, military commander, and other high officials are in danger is shown by the continued arrest of native plotters. These arrests have revealed the fact that the plot to assassinate the English officials has not been abandoned, but that others have been brought into the cabal until its ramifications reach over an alarming extent.

In view of the latest disclosures the English government is taking elaborate measures to safeguard its officials, and none appears now in public without an escort.

Those who have been arrested are clearly the tools of more designing minds. They have admitted their connection with the revolutionary plot, but have refused absolutely, even on promises of immunity, to reveal the guiding spirits of the organization.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 26.—There was more activity in the market on the floor, with tone firm at the close.

The Czar and Czarina.

St. Petersburg, June 26.—The recent trip of the czar and czarina to Reval for the visit with King Edward, has had a bad effect on their health, particularly that of the czarina, whose condition is such now as to cause the gravest alarm. Both emperor and empress were in a state of nervous dread from the time they left Tsarkoe Selo until they were again within its walls. Those who have seen the czarina recently declare that she looks like a woman of sixty. Once a woman of splendid physique, she now is worn and thin and her hair is rapidly becoming gray. For years she has been known to be failing in health, but her decline in the last few weeks has reached the alarming state. At the Tsarkoe Selo at the present time no fewer than 1,500 members of the secret police are constantly on duty and in addition to these several regiments of soldiers completely encircle the grounds.

Frightful Railroad Accident.

Calcutta, June 26.—Upwards of a score of persons were burned to death in the flames that followed a collision today between an express and a freight train on the Bombay-Baroda Railway line. Eight of the passenger's cars were smashed and immediately caught fire.

Hundreds of people rushed to the scene and began fighting the flames, but before they were quenched many of the victims, pinioned in the debris, were roasted to death. Until the wreckage is cleared away it will be impossible to learn the number of dead, as only the bones of some of the victims remain. At least thirty were badly injured. Several Europeans who were on the express train are unaccounted for.

Dispatch From King Edward.

Oyster Bay, June 26.—Just before taking the train for Princeton, President Roosevelt was handed a cable message which follows:

"Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States of America:

I am most grateful for your kind congratulations on the occasion of the celebration of my birthday. I desire also to express my deepest sympathy at the loss of your predecessor, Mr. Cleveland.

Edward R.

The cable was in reply to a message sent by President Roosevelt to King Edward of England today.

ACCIDENTS.

A youth named Frank Silcott, who was riding a bicycle near the intersection of King and Pitt streets about 11 o'clock this morning collided with a horse attached to a buggy in which two young ladies were seated and was knocked off his wheel. The horse reared when struck by the bicycle and in coming down his forefeet struck young Silcott on the breast. The horse then walked over the prostrate boy without touching him. The latter was picked up and taken into the drug store of Mr. Edgar Warfield, jr., where it was found that his injuries, though painful, were not serious. He was later removed to his home on south Patrick street, where he was attended by Dr. Jones. The young ladies in charge of the buggy did all they could to prevent the accident when they saw young Silcott riding towards them.

A dispatch received in this city today from Philadelphia stated that Mr. Harvey Poss, of Alexandria, fell down a stairway yesterday and was seriously injured. Mr. Poss is employed by the American Fertilizer Company.

John Sisson had one of his fingers nearly mashed off while working on a scow at the foot of Wilkes street yesterday. He was attended by Dr. Jones.

FIREMEN MEET.

A meeting of the committees appointed by the different active fire companies in the city to consider the advisability of holding the annual meeting of the Virginia State Firemen's Association in Alexandria in August, 1909, was held at the Columbia fire engine house last night.

Mr. C. J. W. Summers, of the Columbia, was elected permanent chairman, and Mr. Claude L. Pickin, of the Relief, secretary.

It was decided to ask the convention, which meets in Harrisonburg next August, to hold their next annual meeting in this city.

After some informal talk a committee, composed of Messrs. Joseph Drew and R. L. Merchant, of the Columbia; Arthur Grimes and J. Y. Williams, of the Reliance and Cletus Myers and John M. Griffin, of the Relief, were appointed to ascertain to what extent financially the citizens would assist in this matter. The sub committee was also instructed to consider the advisability of holding a carnival previous to the convention, the money received from the same to be devoted to the expenses incident to the meeting. The committee will hold another meeting Monday night.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary V. Travers, who died Tuesday, took place this morning from St. Mary's Church. Rev. Father L. F. Kelly conducted the services, and the interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Frank Evans, H. H. Kelly, M. R. O'Sullivan, Thos. F. McDermott, T. P. Coombs and Michael Cullen.

Messrs. Humphreys and Van Arsdale and the pallbearers will be Messrs. C. O. Ernest, John and Thomas Pulman, jr., T. F. McDermott, and Willian and Samuel Baggett. The interment will be in Union Cemetery.

DEATH OF JESSE COOPER.

Mr. Jesse Cooper, who had been ill at the Braddock House during the past few days, died last night. The deceased was about 40 years old. He had been a sufferer from a cancerous affection on the right side of his face, and recently his lower limbs had become paralyzed. Mr. Cooper had resided in this city during the past two or three years, he having been employed in the painting department at Fort Myer. He was a member of Pentalpha Lodge of Masons of Washington. His remains were taken in charge by members of the craft in this city and conveyed to Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment.

PLACARDING HOUSES.

Inasmuch as there seems to be a divergence of opinion among physicians regarding the advisability of placarding all houses where suspicious diseases may appear, Dr. E. A. Gorman, health officer, at the suggestion of Mayor Paff, has sent a circular to each of the city physicians in which the laws regulating such matters are embraced. In cases where variola, varioloid, varicella, diphtheria, scarletina, tetanus or other diseases occur, such, under these laws, must be reported to the health officer in order that houses in which such diseases exist may be placarded, according to the requirements of the statutes.

OVERCROWDING EXCURSION BOATS.

Commissioner Macfarland received a letter yesterday from L. M. Farrow, of 50 M street northwest Washington, asking that the overcrowding of excursion boats be investigated. He says he recently rode on one of the river boats which carried 1,300 persons. The commissioner, replying to Mr. Farrow, said the government of the District of Columbia has no power over steamboats, and suggested that he take the matter up with the steamboat inspector's office, in the Commerce and Labor Department.

The moving pictures now being exhibited by the Alexandria Amusement Company on King street, near Pitt, continue to attract large crowds. Electric fans are used in the building and the temperature is always pleasant. The show last night, "Nero, and the Burning of Rome," was greatly enjoyed and pronounced so good that it will be repeated tonight. In addition two new reels will be presented.

MARRIED.

There was a pretty June wedding Thursday morning when Miss Ester Latitia Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Webster, was married to Mr. Thomas E. Jackson. The ceremonies were conducted by Rev. Alexander Trusti, of the Alfred Street Baptist Church, in the presence of the immediate families. Miss Webster is the granddaughter of Mr. James Webster, one of the oldest citizens of Alexandria, and he was one of the founders of that church. The bride was dressed in a handsome gown of brown rajah with a tulle hat to match and trimmed in chrysanthemums and foliage, carrying a bouquet of carnations and roses, the gift of the groom's brother, and wearing a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. They left on the Southern road for Boston, where they will remain until October 1, when they will be home to their many friends and acquaintances.

City Treasurer's Office, Alexandria, Va., May 31, 1908. } THOS. W. ROBINSON, City Treasurer.

Alexandria, Va., June 23, 1908.

To the Honorable City Council of Alexandria:

Gentlemen: The following report shows the number of new mains laid, number of new services and number of services renewed; also improvements at city gas plant during past fiscal year:

143 feet 2 inch wrought iron main on west side of north Alfred street, under sidewalk between Cameron and Queen streets, costing $45.77.

400 feet 2-inch wrought iron main on Orono co street, costing $92.50.

609 feet 4-inch cast iron main on Duke street, connecting with Alfred, Patrick and Henry streets, costing $422.50.

564 feet 4-inch cast iron main on south Alfred street connecting Wolfe and Gibbon streets, costing $327.50.

Twenty-three (23) services renewed costing $116.29 or $5.05 each.

Seventy-three new services costing $646.37, or $8.85 each.

The difference of $3.80 between a new service and a renewed service is due to the fact that when renewing a service we do not have to tap the main, cut through foundation of house or put in cut off box which we have to do when putting in a new service.

Two (2) new gas lamps erected, one on northwest corner of Fairfax and Gibbon streets, costing $10.40, and one on the northeast corner of Duke and Fayette streets, costing $9.85.

Total expended for mains, services and gas lamps, $1,671.18.

IMPROVEMENT AT WORKS.

Making proper connections for ammonia plant,	$11 13
The city has yet to furnish circulating pumps for same as per contract.
Office at works,	40 75
Installing fire pump; also hose for same,	144 76
Men's toilet,	55 50
Roof over revivifying floor of oxide platform,	135 00
Putting in bypass for holders,	30 08
Total for improvements,	$415 22

In conclusion would like to call your attention to the fact that although the gross profits on gas sold consumers has decreased $3,647.71, yet the net earnings on gas sold consumers has only decreased $42 62, which is due to the decrease in the expense accounts.

Respectfully submitted,
F. W. LATHAM,
Superintendent of Gas.

THE FEVER TICK.

Sixty-three million dollars damage yearly through the ravages of the Texas fever tick among cattle, is the stupendous loss which the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Department of Agriculture is endeavoring to stop.

The magnitude of the work is little understood. The quarantine line for cattle has until recently been steadily moving northward, an increasing territory opening up for the pests, and the already enormous damage being added to rapidly. Working in co-operation with the state authorities, the Bureau of Animal Industry, under appropriation from Congress, has already accomplished a wonderful amelioration of conditions. With the fiscal year beginning July 1, with an increased appropriation from Congress of $250,000, and confident anticipation that the States and countries where the work is undertaken will double that sum, there is every prospect that the dread quarantine line will be forced farther back. Since the work was inaugurated, in 1906, an area of 56,000 square miles—or almost the size of Georgia—has been entirely freed from the ticks.

Last year's work was done to a greater or less extent in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Texas and California, and during the coming year will be pushed even more vigorously.

Officials of the Bureau declare that the damage caused by the ticks and the benefits to follow from their eradication are not generally appreciated. It is estimated that the Texas fever tick is responsible for about $40,000,000 loss annually to people in the infected country, and that it lowers the assets of the south by an additional $23,250,000, making the enormous aggregate of $63,250,000.

Various methods for exterminating the ticks are used, including transferring the cattle from pasture, and dipping, spraying, and hand dressing with oil, and oil emulsions. With large herds dipping is most usually the practice.

SEA SERPENT CAUGHT.

A sea monster weighing 15,000 pounds, 45 feet in length, and in appearance much like the fabled sea serpent, was caught by two fishermen, Albert Richardson and a companion, five miles off Orrs Island, Casco Bay, Me., yesterday morning, after it had made a desperate effort to escape from the meshes of the big mackerel net.

This finally wound itself so tightly about it that the gills were tied flat to its body. The big fish was drowned, not, however, until he had stove a rail off one motor boat and nearly capsized the other.

The oldest fishermen never have seen anything like it. The fish's head was a shark's without teeth, his body serpentine, with a spiny back fin; his tail was like a whale's, four feet long and six feet broad.

It took the two fishermen's motor boat three hours to tow the carcass ashore. The fish was cut up. Its liver, weighing 1,700 pounds, will be tried out for oil.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is the one that children like so well to take as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It acts gently yet freely on the bowels and thereby it drives the cold out of the system. It is sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Collector's Office, June 17, 1908.

Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1908 are now in the hands of the Collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1908, the Collector of Taxes shall allow a discount of ten per cent, and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1908, he shall allow a discount of five per cent, and on all bills not paid on the 1st day of December, 1908, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1909, damages at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be paid."

Taxpayers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

Bring a list to make sure you get bills for all your property, as the Collector will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by law. P. F. GORMAN,
